What qualities and skills do our members need?

Ideal members should have qualities that link up with the ethics and values driving our organisation such as accountability and human dignity. The Board also needs people with various key skills to function effectively – not everyone has all these skills, but collectively we will contribute to a strong team.

In putting together our membership team, we need people who has a passion for what we do. People who share our dream and support our Vision and Mission.

These qualities, Key principles and skills together will ensure a well-represented membership structure.

Key Principles

- We are a CHRISTIAN FAITH BASED organisation and require our members to share this value.
- No Discrimination on Race, Gender, Nationality, or ability will be tolerated.
- Diversity – we need a cross-section of people with different experiences, skills, and backgrounds.
- Community representation is important.
